

DUES REFUND POLICY

Following receipt of a member's state dues in the TASO office, the refund policy of state dues is as follows:

1. If the renewal member requests a refund of state dues after receipt of the member's state dues in the TASO office and prior to the earliest UIL scrimmage date for that sport regardless of whether such scrimmages are boys' or girls' scrimmages, for any reason, including job relocation, family obligations, etc., fifty percent of the state dues are refunded to the member.
2. If the renewal member's dues include a late fee, the late fee is refunded to the member.
3. A $5.00 Transaction fee may be withheld on any refund to cover the credit card charges and staff resources.
4. If the new member requests a refund of state dues after receipt of the member's dues in the TASO office for any reason, including job relocation, family obligations, etc., no portion of the dues are refunded to the member.
5. If a renewal member requests a refund of state dues after receipt of the member's dues in the TASO office and after the earliest UIL scrimmage date for that sport, regardless of whether such scrimmages are boys' or girls' scrimmages, no portion of the dues are refunded to the member.
6. If a new or renewal member is a member of the armed forces and is deployed outside of the State of Texas, the member's state dues will be refunded in full. Specific requests for refunds under this section may be reviewed individually and supporting documentation is required.
Note: If a renewal member is a member of the armed forces and has been deployed outside of Texas, the member is not required to pay a reinstatement fee when renewing TASO membership.
7. If a renewal member's application for membership is not approved by the Membership Review Committee, fifty percent of the member's state dues will be refunded. If the rejection is based on an incident that the member failed to disclose as outlined in the TASO By-Laws, there is no refund.
8. All requests for a refund of TASO state dues must be submitted to the TASO office by the TASO member seeking a refund in the manner prescribed by the TASO Executive Director.
9. Special or emergency requests may be determined by the Executive Director.
10. Once a member has received his/her TASO dues refund for a sport, the member acknowledges that all rights and privileges associated with TASO membership in that sport is waived including coverage by any and all TASO insurance policies
